1. Francis Cooke-1 was born about Aug 1583 in England. He died on 07 Apr 1663 in Plymouth, Plymouth, Massachusetts.

General Notes:

Francis Cooke

Birth: Aug 1583 England

Death: 7 Apr 1663 (aged 79) Plymouth, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, USA

Burial: Coles Hill Burial Ground, Plymouth, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, USA

Memorial #: 34825341

Bio: Born in or shortly after 1583. Came from Leiden, Holland to Plymouth in 1620 in the MAYFLOWER. Died in Plymouth 7 April 1663. Married in Leiden 20 Jul 1603[NS] or shortly thereafter Hester Mahieu; she died after 8 June 1666. Their 7 children: Jane Mitchell, John, a child buried in Leiden, Elizabeth, Jacob, Hester Wright, & Mary Thomson. Source: Anderson's Pilgrim Migration. Find A Grave contributor Mary Wiese found this information in an unidentified source: Francis Cooke was born about 1583. His origins have not been discovered, but it is probable he was born in England, perhaps from the Canterbury or Norwich areas. He married Hester le Mahieu on 20 July 1603 in Leiden, Holland; she was a French Walloon whose parents had initially fled to Canterbury, England; she left for Leiden sometime before 1603. Francis Cooke and Hester le Mahieu's marriage occurred in Leiden, Holland six years before the Pilgrim church made its move there, so he was living there long before their arrival and must have met up with and joined them afterwards. His wife Hester was a French Walloon. What brought Francis to Holland in the first place is unknown: religious persecution of Protestants in England did not really begin until after King James took power in 1604. In 1606, the Cookes left Leiden and went to Norwich, Norfolk for a time (for what reason is not known), but returned to have their first son, John, baptized at the French church in Leiden, sometime between January and March, 1607. In Holland, Cooke took up the profession of a woolcomber. Francis, and his oldest son John, came on the Mayflower to Plymouth in 1620.. He left behind his wife Hester and his other children Jane, Jacob, Elizabeth and Hester. After the Colony was founded and better established, he sent for his wife and children, and they came to Plymouth in 1623 on the ship Anne. Francis lived out his life in Plymouth. Although he kept a fairly low profile, he was on a number of minor committees such as the committee to lay out the highways, and received some minor appointments by the Court to survey or lay out land. He was a juror on a number of occasions, and was on the coroner's jury that examined the body of Martha Bishop, the 4-year old daughter who was murdered by her mother Alice. He received some modest land grants at various times throughout his life. He lived to be about 80 years old, dying in 1663; his wife Hester survived him by at least three years and perhaps longer. ## Generation 1 (con't)

Hester Mahieu daughter of Jacques Le Mahieu and Jeanne "Jennie" Leman (Laman) Mahieu was born about 1582 in Lille, Departement du Nord, Nord-Pas-de-Calais, France. She died on 08 Jun 1666 in Plymouth, Plymouth, Massachusetts.

Notes for Hester Mahieu:

General Notes:

Hester Mahieu Cooke

Birth: 1582 Lille, Departement du Nord, Nord-Pas-de-Calais, France

Death: 8 Jun 1666 (aged 83-84) Plymouth, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, USA

Burial: Unknown

Memorial #: 16220034

Bio: Came to America on the ship Anne in 1623. She was of Walloon (French Protestant) stock but came to Leyden, Holland from Canterbury, England where there was a Walloon church, in the records of which the name of Mahieu was common. The marriage intentions state Hester Mahieu was from Canterbury, England and she was accompanied by her mother, Jennie Mahieu and her sister Jennie Mahieu. In his book "Hypocrisie Unmasked", Edward Winslow stated she was a "Walloone" and came from the French "Mayflower Descendant" 27:145 shows she was admitted to the French Reformed Church in Leiden in 1603. "Take notice of our practie at Leyden, viz. that one Samuel Terry was received from the French Church there, into communion with us; also the wife of Francis Cooke being a Walloone, holds communion with the Church at Plymouth, as she came from the French, to this day, by virtue of communion of churches." [Winslow's "Hypocrisie Unmasked" in "Mayflower Descendant" 27:64] Daughter of Jacques and Jenne/Jeanne (___) Mahieu, Walloon refugees from the area around Lille (now in France). If 19 at marriage and 42 at the birth of her last known child about late 1626, then Hester was born about 1584 and thus was about two years younger than her husband. As Hester was about 82 in 1666, it seems likely she died closer to 1666 than to 1675. Hester Mahie was admitted to communion in the Walloon church by confession of faith on June 1, 1603, about a month and a half before her marriage.

Consider Cooke died, in his seventy-fifth year, on April 20, 1819, and was buried in the Cooke section of the Marksboro Presbyterian Cemetery, about three miles from his home where many others of his generation, including some of his brothers, are buried. He was probably one of the founders of the Marksboro Presbyterian Church in 1815. The inscription on his gravestone is as follows:

Consider Cooke died without a will as there is recorded at the Court House at Newton, N. J., a partition deed, executed by his three children on August 19, 1819, four months after his death, which divides "certain lands tenements and hereditaments situate in the county of Sufsex, which descended to the said Rebeckah Cooke, William Cooke and Nathan Cooke by the death of their father intestate."

There is also recorded at the Court House an Inventory of Consider Cooke, Sr., taken May 18, 1819, as follows:

Anna Sofia Ekstrom daughter of Per Fabian Ekstrom and Helena Sauvrow was born on 27 Nov 1876 in Minnesota. She died on 12 Oct 1952 in Pierce, North Dakota.

Notes for Anna Sofia Ekstrom:

General Notes:

From:

From McHenry County Centennial Book:

Capt. Pehr and Helena (Sauvrow) Ekstrom

By Helen Chapman

Anna taught in a school provided for the education of the children of the English ranchers who had settled on the banks of the Mouse River.

Later she taught in Towner's first brick school house. This building was used until the red brick school was built in 1905. The original building was then used for apartments and was known as the Rosencrans Flats. Anna had some students who later made Towner proud. They were Alan Soule and the Strand boys, Olaf and Anton. In 1900 Anna married Irvin Cook who had come West from his parental home in Wabasha, Minnesota to work in construction along the new rail road. At that time it had reached Minot. He homesteaded and acquired other land which is the present Cook Ranch northwest of Towner. The Cooks had five children, Helen, Hattie, Lytie, Leroy and Pehr Irvin (Pat).
